Stockholm, February 10.

YEsterday the Diet ordered all the Arrears due to Count Gyllenstierne the Senator, to be paid, in Consideration of his long Services and Imprisonment in Muscovy. The King of Sweden went a Hunting on Monday last, and will return the latter End of this Week. The Saxon Secretary M. Walter has received Orders for his Departure on M. Ittrode's Arrival, which has been retarded by his Father's Death; in his Way he will be charged with his Master's Compliments to the King of Denmark.

Warsaw, Feb. 21, N. S. Yesterday the Senators, Ministers, and those of the Equestrian Order that are appointed by the Republick to confer with Foreign Ministers, went to the King, with the Primate at the Head of them, to concert Matters concerning the Conferences, and to know his Majesty's Pleasure when they should begin; so they were fixed for To-morrow. This Day the Turkish Ambassador had a publick Audience; he only notified the Grand Signior's Accession to the Throne; the King then asked him if he had any Thing else to say, he answered that he had, but desired his Majesty would be pleased to appoint Commissioners, to whom he would communicate the rest of his Orders; which was complied with. He afterwards dined at Court with several of the Senators and Ministers; which being over, there was a Consort of Musick, and then he returned to his Lodgings on Horseback, attended by the King's Servants.

Whitehall, March 2.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of Her Majesty's Birth Day, Her Majesty received at Noon the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction of both Sexes. At Night there was a Ball. The Appearance was at both Times very numerous, and extremely splendid. On this Occasion the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired, and in the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other publick Demonstrations of Joy throughout London and Westminster.

Navy-Office, Feb. 22, 1730.

These are to give Notice, that the Two Months Pay in Six due to His Majesty's Ships as undermentioned, to the Times against them expressed, will be paid in Broad-street on Monday the 8th of March next, to the Seamens lawful Attorneys, in Pursuance of an Act of Parliament on that Behalf, viz.

Phœnix,	30 June 1730.
Lowestoff,	ditto.

Navy-Office, Feb. 26, 1730.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury having appointed Money for paying of Half Pay to Sea Officers, from July 1, 1730, to the 31st of December last, according to His late Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf, these are to give Notice, That the said Payments will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad Street, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning of the following Days, viz. On Monday the 22d of March next for the Captains, Tuesday the 23d for the Lieutenants, and Wednesday the 24th for the Masters and Surgeons; that all Persons concerned may then and there attend to receive what
